THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI GEORGE FERNANDES): (a) to (c) In August 1985 the Ministry of Defence approved the construction of a Naval Base at Karwar at an initial estimated expenditure of Rs. 350.00 crores. The initial estimates were indicative and were made without a Master Plan and a Detailed Project Report. The scope of work, different Sub components of the Dockyard and details regarding supporting Infrastructure had not been worked out. In the year 1989 a Consultant was appointed to draw the Master Plan and detailed Project report for Phase-1-A and 1-B of the Project. The Consultant submitted his report in 1990. However, the Project could not progress further due to financial constraints. Based on the Final Project Report, with reduced scope of Phase-I, when compared with the initial proposal and keeping in view the escalation of price level in the meantime, the Ministry of Defence finally approved in October 1995 the construction of Phase-I of the Project at a projected cost of Rs. 1294.41 crores.

The rehabilitation package finalized in consultation with the State Government, included interalia, a cash allowance and a house site, education stipend, and relief for food and medicines. The rehabilitation Project has been finalized at a total amount of Rs. 126.96 crores and State Government of Karnataka has already been paid a sum of Rs. 117.02 crores. The Balance amount will be paid on Audit of accounts.

The Project is scheduled to be completed by 2005.
